International Semester in Business Administration in Hagen

Welcome ...

... to the International Semester in Hagen

The South Westphalia University of Applied Sciences in Hagen is excited to welcome international students to our business department's one-semester exchange program. In Hagen we currently have about 2700 full- and part-time students studying (International) Business Administration and Engineering, (International) Business Administration and Informatics, Energy and Buildings, Electrical Engineering, Medical Engineering or Medical Computer Engineering for Bachelor Degree and Business Administration and Engineering for Master Degree.

There are many good reasons to come to Hagen for an international semester:

- Personal education experience
- Small class sizes
- No tuition fees
- Concentrated campus
- Close to renowned cities of Dortmund, Düsseldorf or Cologne
